Rome, August 22. N. S.

THE Negociations relating to the Differences between the Emperor and this Court are continued, and the Great Duke of Tuscany and the Duke of Modena's Ministers here have joined their good Offices to those of the Cardinal Giudice, who acts as Minister from the Crown of Spain, for accommodating this Matter; But the Pope has not yet given Audience to the Imperial Ambassador, notwithstanding his Excellency, to comply with his Desire, has set at liberty one of his Servants, whom he kept Prisoner in his own House. The French Ambassador has declared, that he has received Orders from the King his Master to visit the Queen-Dowager of Poland, provided she treat him with the same Honours, as she allows to Cardinals in case any of them shall be then present. The Pope has ordered a Troop of Horse to be raised, who are to be employ'd in going the Patrole in the Highways near this City, for the Security of those who intend to come hither on account of the Jubilee; and Orders are sent to the Governors of the several Cities in the Ecclesiastical State likewise to use all proper Methods to secure the Roads. The Abbot Scarlatt had Audience of the Pope yesterday, to whom he presented a Letter from the Elector of Bavaria, acquainting him with the Birth of his Son, and desiring him to be his Godfather; which the Pope has consented to, and has given Orders for a Letter to be writ, to desire the Elector of Cologne to represent him on this occasion, and to Name the young Prince, Innocent. Cardinal d'Aguirre died last Wednesday of an Apoplexy, which makes an eighth Place vacant in the College of Cardinals.

Milan, Aug. 26. The Prince of Vaudemont, our Governor, went from this Place yesterday, being accompanied by Prince Charles of Vaudemont his Son, (who is lately arrived here from Germany,) and by several other Persons of Quality, to Review the Regiments of Horse and Dragoons in the Service of this State, who are encamped for that purpose near Pavia. Count Borromeo, who resides here with the Character of the Emperor's Commissary, is gone to Castiglione, which is a Fief of the Empire, to enquire into the Disorders that have lately happened there, and to compose the Differences between the Prince of Castiglione and some of his Subjects. Mr. Hill, His Majesty of Great-Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Duke of Savoy, arrived here this week from Turin, and intends to go hence to morrow in his return home.

Warsaw, August 29. An Express arrived here this day from Lemberg, who immediately continued his Journey towards Germany, being sent (as 'tis said) by the Crown-General, to give the King of Poland an account, that the Turks have evacuated Caminiec. The Cardinal Primate is returned hither from Lowitz. The Commissioners from the Elector of Brandenburgh about the Business of Elbing are daily expected; and in the mean time the Baron Werner, Resident from his Electoral Highness, continues his Conferences with the Ministers at this Court for accommodating this Affair, and 'tis said, the principal Points of the Treaty are already adjusted.

Copenhagen, Septemb. 8. The Gates of this City were kept shut till Sunday last upon the occasion of the late King's Death, whose Body lies in State in the Palace; An Order has been published, That all Persons of Quality, and all Officers Civil and Military, and others, who have any dependency upon the Court, do put themselves and their Servants into deep mourning. The Count de Guldenleew has desired Leave, on account of his great Age and frequeht Indispositions, to resign all his Employments except that of Vice-Roy of Norway, where he intends to go and spend the remainder of his Life. The King has disposed of the Principal Offices at Court; Baron Jewell is made Admiral General, the Count de Raventlau Great Chancellor, and Monsieur Wibe Chief Secretary of the Chancery. Monsieur Lanthe has the Office of Secretary of War, which was enjoyed by Monsieur Harboe; Monsieur Gabel is made Governor of the Academy; Monsieur Van Hahn High Marshal, in the Place of Monsieur Van Osten; Monsieur Holsten First Gentleman of the Bed-chamber; The young Count of Raventlau, Son to the Chancellor, Lieutenant General of the Danish Horse, in the room of Monsieur Plesse; And Brigadier General Krabbe Captain of the Horse-Guards.

Vienna, Sept. 2. On the 27th of the last Month the Imperial Court were entertained at the Palace at Favorita with a Turnament, performed by the King of the Romans, the Prince of Hesse-Darmstad, and divers other Persons of Quality; and to morrow the Court will remove to Ebersdorf. Orders are sent to the General Officers in Hungary to take a Review of the Imperial Forces there, and to give an exact Account to the Court, of the number of Effective Men in each Regiment, and of what Arrears are due to them, in order to their being paid. Count Ottyng, Ambassador from the Emperor to the Grand Signior, is on his departure from hence for Turky; and we hear, a Bassa is come to Belgrade, being sent by the Grand Signior to receive his Excellency on the Borders of the Turkish Dominions, and to conduct him, and defray the Charges of his Journey to Constantinople. Our Letters from Croatia give an Account, that the Commissioners from the Emperor, the State of Venice, and the Grand Signior, who met on the Frontiers of that Province, having settled the Limits in those Parts, Count Marsigli the Imperial Commissioner, and the Turkish Commissioner appointed to treat with him, were gone towards Temeswaer, in order to regulate the Limits between the German and the Turkish Dominions on that side.

Berlin, Sept. 8. The Elector of Brandenburgh went on the 6th Instant from Oranienbourg to Potsdam, and 'tis said, his Electoral Highness intends about the middle of the next Month to go to Prussia. The Sieur Galeski, Ambassador from the King of Poland to the States-General, passed through this Place some days ago in his return home, and had a private Audience of the Elector. His Electoral Highness has sent Monsieur Kolbe, First Gentleman of his Bed-chamber, to the King of Poland, to Compliment him upon his arrival at Dresden. Monsieur Tettau is appointed to go and reside in England as his Electoral Highness's Envoy Extraordinary, in the room of the Count of Dhona.
